APPOINTMENT OF FINANCIAL AGENT - 325 INSTRUCTIONS

PLEASE PRINT IN BLOCK LETTERS OR TYPE, EXCEPT WHERE A SIGNATURE IS REQUIRED.

PART A

- ❶ Candidates may act as their own financial agent instead of appointing another individual.
- ❷ Name of nominee/candidate.
- ❸ Name of electoral district in which the nominee/candidate is seeking election.

PART B

If appointing another individual as financial agent:

- ❹ Name and mailing address of financial agent. This information will be published.
- ❺ Phone numbers (home and work), fax number and email address of financial agent.
- ❻ The effective date of appointment means the day on which the financial agent assumes that position.
- ❼ The protection of personal information only applies to residential telephone numbers.

PART C

- ❽ The financial agent must sign the appointment form, indicating their consent to the appointment, confirming their qualifications to act as a financial agent, and acknowledging the duties and responsibilities of the position. The financial agent is responsible for administering the candidate's finances in accordance with the Election Act. For more information on the obligations of the financial agent, refer to Part 10 of the Election Act.

The following individuals are disqualified from acting as a financial agent:

- ❼ election officials, voter registration officials or employees of Elections BC;
- ❼ individuals who do not have full capacity to enter into contracts;
- ❼ an individual who is a member of the same firm as the individual who is the candidate's auditor or who is a member of the firm which is the candidate's auditor; and
- ❼ individuals who have been convicted of an offence under the Election Act or the Recall and Initiative Act within the last seven years [Election Act, s. 176].

PART D

- ❾ The appointment must be signed by the nominee/candidate.

Signing a false statement is an offence and is subject to the following penalties: a fine of up $20,000; imprisonment for a term not longer than two years; or both [Election Act, s. 266].
